

Buildnex — Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Personalized Printing & Creative Gifts

Buildnex — Build. Scale. Grow.

What products can I order?

- Buildnex may offer personalized photo gifts, printed items, mugs, glass products, frames, décor items, customized gifts, craft products and other creative products.
- Product availability, sizes, materials, colors and customization options depend on the individual product listing.

Can I personalize my product?

- Yes. Where customization is available, customers may provide names, photos, messages, dates, designs or other requested details.
- Customers are responsible for checking spelling, names, dates and uploaded images before confirming a personalized order.

Can I preview my customized design?

- If Buildnex provides a preview or design approval process, the customer should review it carefully before approval.
- Once production has started, changes may not be possible for personalized products.

How long does an order take?

- Processing time depends on the product, customization requirements, order quantity and current workload.
- Delivery time is additional to production/processing time and may vary by location and courier.

Can I order in bulk?

- Bulk and corporate orders may be accepted subject to product availability, pricing and production capacity.
- Customers should contact support for bulk-order quotations and timelines.

What if I receive a damaged or incorrect item?

- Contact Buildnex customer support as soon as possible with the order details and clear photographs/video of the package and product.
- Buildnex may review the evidence and provide an appropriate resolution according to the applicable product and order policy.
