

Buildnex — Shipping Policy

Personalized Printing & Creative Gifts

Buildnex — Build. Scale. Grow.

Processing and dispatch

- Buildnex aims to process and dispatch orders within the timeline communicated for the relevant product. Delivery times can vary by destination and courier conditions.
- Production/processing time begins after required order details, customization information and payment confirmation are received, where applicable.
- Personalized products may require additional processing time.

Delivery

- Delivery timelines are estimates and may be affected by courier delays, weather, holidays, incorrect addresses, service disruptions or other circumstances outside Buildnex's direct control.
- Customers should provide a complete and accurate shipping address and contact information.

Shipping charges

- Shipping fees, if applicable, will be shown or communicated before order confirmation.
- Any free-shipping eligibility will depend on the offer or product terms active at the time of purchase.

Delivery problems

- If a package appears damaged, customers should document the package and product before disposing of packaging.
- If tracking shows delivery but the customer has not received the package, contact Buildnex support promptly so the delivery issue can be investigated.
